- Saint Thomas is in Phase I of a Capital Campaign to restore the stained glass windows and replace the chancel organ. The goal of Phase I is to raise a minimum of $10 million. To date, generous parishioners and friends have pledged over $9.8 million. To reach our goal, we need the participation of all who worship at Saint Thomas. If you have not yet supported this effort, please do so now. To be included in the list of donors, you may give on-line or complete a pledge card by June 30, 2010. You can find Campaign brochures in the narthex and in the Parish House. If you have any questions, please contact Ann Hall Kaplan at 212.757.7013, ext. 314 or akaplan@SaintThomasChurch.org.
- We have concluded the most successful Easter outreach to date. The Women of Saint Thomas thank all who contributed to the Easter basket program. We received enough donations of candy, toys and clothes to make beautiful baskets for children at New Destiny in Bed-Stuy, Holy Apostles Soup Kitchen and The Children's Advocacy Center with Safe Horizons.
- Save the date: AIDS Walk with Episcopal Response to AIDS on May 16, 2010. Please let us know if you would like to join us on the walk or sponsor a walker. For more information contact Linda Morfi at 212.757.7013 ext. 321 or lmorfi@SaintThomasChurch.org. You may also visit www.erany.org.
- The Beloved Sons in the Old Testament experienced something like death and resurrection. This Easter season, the Sunday morning adult class is looking at these beloved sons, particularly those in Genesis. Anyone interested is welcome: on the fifth floor of the Parish House at 10 a.m.
- "Love in the Ruins" by Walker Percy will be discussed in the Good Books and Good Talk seminar this Monday, in Andrew Hall from 6:15 to 7:45 p.m. This is a strangely prophetic novel whose protagonist is a lapsed Catholic in a time when the Catholic Church has split into three parts. It has Percy's characteristic humor and outrageousness that disguise the possibility that Christian faith has something to say for itself.

Anyone who has read the book is welcome to the discussion.

- The Christian Hope: Death, Judgment, Hell, and Heaven is the topic for this week's session of the Rector's Christian Doctrine Class. Please note the order of those four "last things": Heaven is the last of the last words. Persons interested in the topic are welcome, and those who would like to be confirmed or received into the Episcopal Church are particularly encouraged to attend: Tuesday, in Andrew Hall, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.
- The Christological Problem will be taken up this week by the Wednesday reading group. In this study of Robert Jenson's trinitarian theology, the Christological "problem" refers to the many issues posed by Jesus being both God and man, and (as God) being the very second "person" of the Trinity, the Word of God. For a challenging and fascinating exploration of this mystery, come on Wednesday to Andrew Hall at 6:30 p.m. Newcomers are welcome.
- A seminar on theology and science will begin Monday, April 19. This five-week course will read and discuss John Polkinghorne's Theology in the Context of Science. Polkinghorne, an Anglican priest, is one of the world's leading scientist-theologians, and a prolific author. He will be giving a public lecture at Saint Thomas on Thursday, May 20, and those who participate in this seminar will have the opportunity of meeting with him at that time. The seminar will first meet in Andrew Hall from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. on April 19.

People Amen.

I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
and of all things visible and invisible;
And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation
came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

and sitteth on the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory,
to judge both the quick and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.
And I believe in the Holy Ghost the Lord, and Giver of Life,
who proceedeth from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified;
who spake by the Prophets.
And I believe one holy Catholic and Apostolic Church;
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of
sins;
and I look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The Deacon and People pray responsively.)

Deacon In peace, let us pray to the Lord.
(The People kneel.)

For all people in their daily life and work;
For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation and the world;
For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of thy creation;
For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

*For those who minister to the sick, the friendless,
and the needy.*

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;
For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Rowan, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Katharine, the Presiding Bishop; and Mark and Catherine, our bishops; and for all bishops and other ministers;

For all who serve God in his Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

Hear us Lord;

For thy mercy is great.

We thank thee, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

We will exalt thee, O God our King;
And praise thy Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died.
Lord, let thy loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in thee.

We pray to thee also for the forgiveness of our sins.

All

Almighty God,
Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
maker of all things, judge of all men:
We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins
and wickedness,
which we from time to time most grievously
have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us.
We do earnestly repent,
and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings;
the remembrance of them is grievous unto us,
the burden of them is intolerable.
Have mercy upon us,
have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past;
and grant that we may ever hereafter
serve and please thee in newness of life,
to the honor and glory of thy Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS

Hymnal S114

(Following which the People kneel.)

The Celebrant continues and concludes with

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee; O Father Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation.

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast.
Alleluia.

AGNUS DEI

Hymnal S158

THE INVITATION

Behold the Lamb of God; behold him that taketh away the sins of the world.

THE POST COMMUNION PRAYER

(The People kneel and join in saying this prayer)

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people;
and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

Please stand for the departure of the clergy.
