Psalm 25:1-8		Anglican Chant (Barnby)

UNTO thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee:*

O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

2 For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed;* but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion.

3 Shew me thy ways, O Lord,* and teach me thy paths.

4 Lead me forth in thy truth, and learn me: for thou art the God of my salvation; in thee hath been my hope all the day long.

5 Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies,* and thy loving-kindnesses, which have been ever of old.

6 O remember not the sins and offences of my youth;* but according to thy mercy think thou upon me, O Lord, for thy goodness.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord;* therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that are meek shall he guide in judgment;* and such as are gentle, them shall he learn his way.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,* and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,* world without end. Amen.

Herbert Sumsion
(1899-1995)

THEY that go down to the sea in ships: and occupy their business in great waters;
These men see the works of the Lord: and his wonders in the deep.
For at his word the stormy wind ariseth: which lifteth up the waves thereof.
They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep: their soul melteth away because of the trouble.

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits' end.
So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivereth them out of their distress.
For he maketh the storm to cease: so that the waves thereof are still.
Then are they glad, because they are at rest: and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

ADORO te devote, latens deitas,
Quae sub his figuris vere latitas;
Tibi se cor meum totum subicit,
Quia te contemplans totum deficit.
Visus, tactus, gustus in te fallitur,
Sed auditu solo tuto creditur.
Credo quidquid dixit Dei Filius;
Nil hoc verbo Veritatis verius.

*I devoutly adore you, O hidden God,
Truly hidden beneath these appearances.
My whole heart submits to you,
And in contemplating you,
it surrenders itself completely.
Sight, touch, taste are all deceived
in their judgement of you,
But bearing suffices firmly to believe.
I believe all that the Son of God has spoken;
There is nothing truer than this word of Truth.*

PARISH NOTICES

If you are a visitor this morning, we welcome you to Saint Thomas Church and hope that you are with us again soon. We encourage you to complete a Welcome Card which you can find in the narthex at the front of the church.

There is a guided tour of the church following the voluntary at the end of this service. To join the tour, please meet the tour guide by the gallery stairs in the narthex.

Nursery: We welcome our youngest members and guests to Saint Thomas Church. Nursery care is available for infants and young children of parents attending the 9 and 11 a.m. liturgies. If your child would like to attend the nursery, please ask one of our ushers or staff who will kindly direct you. Once at the nursery, parents will be asked to sign their children in and will receive a silent pager for use during the service.

Sunday School: Today is the last Sunday School class before the summer break. It will resume on September 8 with a Family Feast at 10 a.m. in the living room of the parish house. We wish all of the children and families a safe and relaxing summer. For more information about registering your child or for questions about the program, please email Mother Alison Turner at SundaySchool@SaintThomasChurch.org.

A quiet area is available in the Chantry Chapel for Children and Families who wish to worship together. Accompanied young children are welcome to use this space during the 9 and 11 a.m. liturgies, where they are invited to enjoy a range of Bible stories and soft toys.

You are invited to Coffee Hour, which takes place in Andrew Hall following this service. To get there, take the Great Staircase to your left at the front of the nave. Please introduce yourself to members of the Welcome Committee, who will be distributing name tags, or to members of the clergy. Also, if you would like to hear from us, please sign the Parish Guest Book.

Concerts at Saint Thomas is pleased to announce our 2019-20 season. Along with our annual Advent and Christmas offerings, this season will feature a celebration of the Centennial of Saint Thomas Choir School, and special guest performances from The King's Singers and Oxford's Keble College Choir. The season begins on Friday, September 27, as Jeremy Filsell plays the William R. Miller Grand Organ Recital at 7 p.m. To purchase tickets or become a Friend of Music, either visit: saintthomaschurch.org/music/concerts or call the Concerts Office: 212.664.9360.

The Living Church Foundation, with Saint Thomas Church, is going on a Pilgrimage to the Holy Land during Lent, 2020. The dates are March 16 to 27, and would include, appropriately, the Feasts of St. Joseph and the Annunciation, which will add to the sense of devotion as we visit Nazareth and Bethlehem. The pilgrimage will include spiritual exercises, liturgies, and devotions led by Mother Turner and the Rector, and will be accompanied by the Bishop of Tennessee, John Bauerschmidt, who will open the scriptures for the group. Please email us at Pilgrimage@SaintThomasChurch.org if you are interested in receiving a color brochure to register for the trip. Brochures are also available at reception upon request.

The Bookstore and Gift Shop is open following today's service. Currently in stock: Learning to Speak God from Scratch: Why Sacred Words Are Vanishing – and How We Can Revive Them by Jonathan Merritt; Tree of Knowledge, Tree of Life by Bishop Richard Chartres; and O Sing unto the Lord: A History of English Church Music by Andrew Gant. Major credit cards are accepted.

Soup Kitchen is always in need of volunteers, but especially during summer due to vacations. Volunteers gather Saturday in the Parish House at 9:30 a.m. to prepare bag lunches for distribution on foot beginning at 11 a.m. Our mission to the homeless is finished at about 12:15 p.m. All are welcome! For more information, call Frank Reinauer at 212.249.4026.

ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Theology Class. This Sunday, with the guidance of Fr. Matthew Moretz, we will explore the theme of “Wrath and Compassion” in the Holy Scriptures. During this class, we will explore the biblical perspectives on the Suffering Servant of the prophet Isaiah and how the understanding of Jesus as Servant is reframed in the New Testament. The class meets at 10 a.m. on the fifth floor of the parish house. This theme will continue for the class on Sunday, July 21. Coffee and tea will be provided.

Friday Bible Study. Over the summer, we continue our Friday lunchtime Bible class led by Father Ryan Bennett. The class runs for an hour in the living room on the second floor of the parish house, following the 12:10 p.m. Mass. We are studying the Book of Acts, including an in-depth exploration of the text and stimulating group conversation. You are welcome to join.

For regular email updates on the life of the parish and notices from the Rector, contact Father Moretz at MMoretz@SaintThomasChurch.org, or text STC5THAVE to 22828. For regular email updates on Adult Education, please text THEOLOGY to 22828.
