---------	------------------------------------

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place from one generation to another.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,
even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.
For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past,
and as a watch in the night.
So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us:
and establish thou the work of our hands upon us;
yea, the work of our hands establish thou it. Amen.

At the Offering, Anthem

‘For the Fallen’

Mark Blatchly
(b. 1960)

WITH proud Thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
our nation mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, Spirit of her spirit, Fallen in the cause of the free.
They went with songs to the battle, they were young, straight of limb, true of eye, steady and a-glow.
They were staunch to the end against odds;
Uncounted, They fell with their faces to the foe.
They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall now weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning We will remember them.
They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables at home;
They have no lot in our labour of the daytime, They sleep beyond this nation’s soil.
