NICHOLAS QUARDOKUS has held the position of Assistant Organist at Saint Thomas Church Fifth Avenue since August 2019. Prior to his appointment here, Nicholas worked at St. Paul's Parish K Street, Washington D.C., where he was an Organ Scholar assisting in playing, conducting, and chorister training for weekly services. In addition to duties at St. Paul's, he was a part-time organist at Washington National Cathedral. He has held similar posts at Yale Divinity School's Marquand Chapel, Trinity Church on-the-Green, New Haven, CT, and Trinity Church, Indianapolis. He earned Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music and the Yale Institute of Sacred Music. His principal teachers have included Janette Fishell and Martin Jean (organ), Elisabeth Wright and Arthur Haas (harpsichord), and Jeffrey Brillhart (improvisation).

Nicholas has garnered top prizes in competitions around the country, winning first prize at the 2014 Albert Schweitzer Organ Competition in Wethersfield, Connecticut. In 2013, he took first prize in the American Guild of Organists Regional Competition for Young Organists. As a solo recitalist, he has performed throughout the Eastern United States, including appearances at conventions of the American Guild of Organists, the Kennedy Center, and the Piccolo Spoleto Festival in Charleston, SC. His solo performances have been broadcast on public radio's Harmonia Early Music and Pipedreams. He was the featured organist in the 2018 German documentary The Unanswered Ives, which is to be broadcast on French and German television. He has appeared collaboratively with the Cathedral Choral Society, the Orchestra of St. Luke's, and the Washington Master Chorale.
