THE BIDDING

BELOVED in Christ, we remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away. We pray for all who in bereavement, disability, and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith, for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may live together in freedom, justice, and peace.

VERSICLES AND RESPONSES

PSALM 121

Sung by the Choir

Anglican Chant (Davies)

LEVAVI OCULOS

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills : from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh even from the Lord : who hath made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved : and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel : shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord himself is thy keeper : the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand;
So that the sun shall not burn thee by day : neither the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil : yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in : from this time forth for evermore.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON

Micah 4:1-5

read by Pamela Lewis, Head of the Guild of Lectors

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Micah.

IN the last days it shall come to pass,
that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains,
and it shall be exalted above the hills;
and people shall flow unto it.
And many nations shall come, and say,
Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
and to the house of the God of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths:
for the law shall go forth of Zion,
and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

And he shall judge among many people,
and rebuke strong nations afar off;
and they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruninghooks:
nation shall not lift up a sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war any more.
But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree;
and none shall make them afraid:
for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.
For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever.

The Lector concludes So ends the First Lesson.

The People stand for the Magnificat.

MAGNIFICAT IN D

Sung by the Choir

Sir Edward Cuthbert Bairstow
(1874-1946)

MY soul doth magnify the Lord,
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
 he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The People sit.

SECOND LESSON

Romans 8:31-39

read by Tessa Dunning, Daughters of the British Empire

A Reading from the Epistle of Saint Paul to the Romans.

WHAT shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Lector concludes So ends the Second Lesson.

The People stand.

NUNC DIMITTIS IN D

Sung by the Choir

Sir Edward Cuthbert Bairstow

LORD, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation;
Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I BELIEVE in God
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord:
 who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, dead, and buried.
 He descended into hell.
 The third day he rose again from the dead.
 He ascended into heaven,
 and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
 From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholick Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE PRAYERS

Sung by the Choir

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

The People kneel.

Let us pray.

℟. Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

*Our Father, which art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done,
in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil. Amen.*

℣. O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.

℟. And grant us thy salvation.

℣. O Lord, save the State.

℟. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

℣. Endue thy Ministers with righteousness.

℟. And make thy chosen people joyful.

℣. O Lord, save thy people.

℟. And bless thine inheritance.

℣. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

℟. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

℣. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

℟. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O ETERNAL Lord God, who holdest all souls in life: Give, we beseech thee, to thy whole Church in paradise and on earth thy light and thy peace; and grant that we, following the good examples of those who have served thee here and are now at rest, may at the last enter with them into thine unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE SECOND COLLECT, FOR PEACE

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that, by thee, we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE THIRD COLLECT, FOR AID AGAINST ALL PERILS

L IGHTEN our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The People sit.

ANTHEM

Sung by the Choir

Sir Edward Cuthbert Bairstow

L ORD, thou hast been our refuge from one generation to another.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever the earth and the world were made,
thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.
Lord, what is man, that thou hast such respect unto him;
or the Son of man, that thou so regardest him?
Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadow.
But thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever,
and thy remembrance throughout all generations.
Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion, yea the time is come, for it is time that thou have mercy.
Comfort us again, now after the time that thou hast plagued us;
and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity. Amen.

Psalm 90:1, 2, 15; Psalm 144:3-4; Psalm 102:12-13

A LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

A minister says

Let us pray.

The People kneel.

God the Father,
have mercy upon us.

God the Son,
have mercy upon us.

God the Holy Spirit,
have mercy upon us.

Holy and blessed Trinity,
have mercy upon us.

From all fear and prejudice, bitterness, and all hardness of heart,
good Lord, deliver us.

From all spite, revenge, and destructive anger,
good Lord, deliver us.

From the desire to dominate others, to impose our will, and from all feelings of superiority,
good Lord, deliver us.

Open our hearts towards our neighbor, and help us to work together for the common good.
Lord, hear us and help us.

Strengthen us to stand for all that is just and true and right.
Lord, hear us and help us.

Grant that we may come to understand our enemies,
Lord, hear us and help us.

Bring release to those with abiding memories of hurt and injury.
Lord, hear us and help us.

Lord grant us the grace to receive forgiveness, and to forgive as we are forgiven.
Lord, hear us and help us.

Comfort all them that mourn, the troubled, and all that call upon thee in their distress.
Lord, hear us and help us.

Guide the leaders of the nations and them that work for peace, and make us all subject to Christ's just and gentle rule.
Lord, hear us and help us.

Holy God,
holy and mighty,
holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Silence is kept. The minister concludes the Litany with this collect

MOST merciful and everlasting God, we remember those whom thou hast gathered from the storm of war into the peace of thy presence: grant that we, being faithful till death, may receive with them the crown of life that never fades, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SERMON

The Rector

During the next anthem, the colors are processed to the Crossing.

ANTHEM

*Mark Blatchly
 (b. 1960)*

WITH proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children, our nation mourns for her dead across the sea.
 Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit, fallen in the cause of the free.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
 straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
 They were staunch to the end against odds; uncounted,
 they fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
 age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
 At the going down of the sun and in the morning
 we will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
 they sit no more at familiar tables at home;
 they have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
 they sleep beyond this nation's soil.

Laurence Binyon (1869-1943)

AN ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

The People stand. The Rector says

LET us remember before God, and commend to his sure keeping those who have died for their country in conflict; those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure; and all who have lived and died in the service of mankind.

A Veteran says the Exhortation

THEY shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

People We will remember them.

The Bugler plays 'Taps.'

THE SILENCE

The silence is broken by the Bugler playing 'Rouse.'

A Veteran says the Kobima Epitaph

WHEN you go home, tell them of us and say,
For your tomorrow, we gave our today.

The Rector says

ALmighty and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by death or life: hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day; fulfil in them the purpose of thy love; and bring us all, with them, to thine eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say can you see, by the dawn's ear - ly light, what so proud - ly we hailed at the twi - light's last gleam - ing, whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the per - i - lous fight, o'er the ram - parts we watched, were so gal - lant - ly stream - ing?
And the rock - ets' red glare, the bombs burst - ing in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say does that star - span - gled ban - ner yet wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THE BLESSING OF THE COLORS

The Rector says

THE Lord bless and hallow the flag of the United States of America, and may he prosper and protect the republic for which it stands, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

AN ACT OF COMMITMENT

The Rector says

Let us commit ourselves to responsible living and faithful service.

Will you strive for all that makes for peace?

People We will.

Will you seek to heal the wounds of war?

People We will.

Will you work for a just future for all humanity?

People We will.

LORD God our Father, we pledge ourselves to serve thee and all the peoples, in the course of peace, for the relief of want and suffering, and for the praise of thy name.
Guide us by the spirit; give us wisdom; give us courage; give us hope;
and keep us faithful now and always. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Go forth into the world in peace;
be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good;
render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the faint-hearted;
support the weak;
help the afflicted;
honor everyone;
love and serve the Lord,
rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit;
and the blessing of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.
