Hymn: Father, in whom thy saints

1. Fa - ther, in whom thy saints are one,
2. For they have gained e - ter - nal - rest,
3. The pa - tri - archs and pro - phets old
4. But first, a - mong the saint - ly band,
5. The Twelve now see the Fa - ther's face,

Bought by the blood of thy dear Son,
And in the heaven - ly man - sions blest
The Mo - ly splen - dor now be - hold;
While all who've run their Son's right hand,
earth - ly race

We praise thee for thy hall - owing grace
They dwell a - mong the an - ge - lic throng,
The Bap - tist, he - rald of thy Son,
A - dores the Sa - viour's end - less love,
In one glad com - pa - ny re - joice

In those who now be - hold thy face. (7.) A - men.
And hear the one un - end - ing song.
En - joys the fruit of la - bour done.
In that e - ter - nal home a - bove.
To hear the heaven - ly bride-groom's voice.

6. Father of all, to thee we pray,
Keep us for ever in the way
That leads us to the heavenly rest
Among the glories of the blest.

7. To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
All worship, love and honour be,
Both now and in eternity.
